

6516208489.txt

I love XM Radio for all the commercial free choices it offers. In a truly competitive environment consumers should have a choice to listen to FM/AM radio or to PAY to listen to what they would like to listen to. If a consumer pays, they should not be forced to listen to something like a commercial. I personally am urging you to reject NAB petition 04-160 so consumers can maintain their freedom of choice.

Sincerely,

Geoff Waters